

Are You Easily Tired?

Just remember that all your strength must come from your food. Did you ever think of that? Perhaps your muscles need more strength, or your nerves; or perhaps your stomach is weak and cannot digest what you eat. If you need more strength then take of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. The oil is the most easily changed of all foods into strength; and the hypophosphites are the best tonics for the nerves. SCOTT'S EMULSION is the easiest and quickest cure for weak throats, for coughs of every kind, and for all cases of debility, weak nerves, and loss of flesh.

LYNCHBURG.

December 5, 1898.

Joseph Belford, an aged and respected mason of this place, died at his home on Saturday night, aged 69 years and 10 months. Lynchburg feels the loss of her most highly esteemed citizens. The funeral services were held at the residence Monday, after which the remains were interred in the Masonic cemetery.

The remains of C. F. Brockman, another of Lynchburg's old time-honored citizens, who died on Thanksgiving Day, were taken on last Monday to Spring Grove cemetery, Cincinnati, for interment.

The Improvement Society met at the Council Chamber on Friday night and effected a permanent organization. Our town will be boomed in improvements of all kinds.

Will Chaney, of Hillsboro, attended the funeral of his uncle, Joseph Belford, at this place Monday.

An immense crowd of citizens of this place and surrounding country met at the Town Hall on Saturday afternoon, for the purpose of forming a Protective Association. Forty-four members were numbered in and committees appointed and charter sent for. It is to be hoped the association will put a stop to the thieving that has been going on in this village and vicinity for some time.

Just at dusk Saturday evening a Mr. Charles was on the main street of our town when he was approached by two young men, Art. Runk and Henselmaw, from Canada regions, and held up for $7.50. Arrests were promptly made and the money was found on young Runk, and they were bound over in the sum of $300 each. They were both lodged in jail, but on Sunday friends came to their aid and the bonds being secured they were released to await trial. Young Runk claims the money which was found had been paid him for corn, but the evidence was against him.

W. G. McClure is in Cincinnati making holiday purchases.

Mr. and Mrs. James Creed, of Berryville, are visiting Mrs. R. I. Chaney.

Elder M. J. Hodson, of Indiana, held a most interesting series of meetings at the Christian Church during the past two weeks.

Several of our neighbor Woodmen attended the institution of a lodge at Sugarree Ridge on last Friday night. All reported a splendid time.

Mrs. John Funk and Mrs. Emily Parrott have been on the sick list, but are some better at this writing.

Mac Walker will occupy the house vacated by our blacksmith, Wm. Winkle, who has moved his family to West Mowrytown.

Prof. W. R. Cornett, of the Lexington school, has returned to his post after spending a few days with his friends here.

Rev. C. C. Alton and family, our U. B. minister, is now a resident of our village. The people surprised the Reverend with a liberal donation.

Rev. Brown, the Methodist minister, addressed the people of this place in the Hall Sunday night.

Rev. W. O. Cornett will travel the the Cynthiana circuit the coming year.

Dr. M. F. Funk, of this place, and Miss Olive Frazee, of Bethel, Ohio, were married recently. The boys gave them a lively serenade. The Doctor responded liberally with cigars and candy.

A. J. Osborn has been appointed superintendent of the U. B. Sunday school in the place of W. O. Cornett.

Diehl Bros. will do a cash system after January 1st, 1899. It would be better for our town and community if all would follow suit.

W. C. Badgley is erecting a dwelling on Church avenue.

Galliett Bros. have employed Eli Funk to run their huckster wagon this winter.

If reports are all true there will be a wedding in our village soon.

Saw mill men at depot seem to be doing a lively business as they have all the vacant hands and teams of this place employed and are seeking more.

Any one would know that Christmas was near if they would visit the post-office.

Charles Few is erecting a dwelling on West Main street.

August Tissot is again a resident of our city.

If you should visit our depot and see the business going on you would 'no doubt think ere long West Mowrytown will be the heart of the city.

Wonder what became of Uncle John's pork?

We clip the following from the Democrat, a paper published in Savannah, Mo., in regard to the death of Abraham Taylor, which will be read with interest by his many friends in this vicinity:

"Abraham Taylor was born in Highland county, O., January 5th, 1827, and died at his home in Savannah, Mo., November 13th, 1898. More than 52 years ago he was converted and joined the M. E. Church of which he remained a faithful member until the day of his death. Within a few weeks after he joined the church he was appointed a class leader and soon thereafter was given exhorter's license, which office he held for more than fifty years. In January, 1857, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary J. Lindsey, who still survives him. Of this union, nine children were born, four of whom, Mrs. Anna Glasier, William, Isaac and Abraham are still living and were present at the funeral. The funeral services were conducted from the Sixth Street M. E. Church Tuesday afternoon by the pastor, L. B. Whiles.

'Squire Foust and lady, of Buford, were greeting friends and relatives at this place last Friday.

James Barker, while coming home from Hillsboro last Saturday night, was "held up" by two highwaymen near the Shackleton school house. One of the men stopped the horse and the other with revolver in hand demanded his money. Mr. Barker had two pocket books in his pocket, one with a large sum and the other containing only a few cents. Believing that the best thing to do was to "cough up" as the desperado would say, he cautiously drew forth both books, dropping the one containing the bills on the buggy seat, unobserved by the men, and handing the other to the man who demanded it. After examining, Mr. Barker requested that he return the pocket book as it was a gift from a friend. The robber threw it back to him remarking that if that was all he had he would probably need it before he got home and with an oath he was told to drive on. Glad to escape so easily he immediately obeyed the command and came home none the worse for his encounter.

Ohio Day, which we mentioned in a former article, will be observed at the Christian Church next Sunday night, rain or shine.
